WELCOME

It's hard to believe that ALL IN has grown to nearly 1,000 campuses across the United States in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

These campuses believe, like we do, that more young people need to participate in the electoral process. They have all made a nonpartisan commitment to increasing student voting rates, helping students form the habits of active and informed citizenship, and making democratic participation a core value. Together, they are cultivating generations of engaged citizens essential to a healthy democracy.

There's more work to be done, but today we hope you'll join us in celebrating the achievements of the dedicated individuals and institutions across the country working tirelessly to strengthen our democracy.

Thank you for joining us, thank you for your support, and thank you for being ALL IN!

All the best,
Jen

AWARDS CELEBRATION SPEAKERS

CECILIA MUÑOZ

Civic Nation Board Member & Former Director of the Domestic Policy Council of the United States

Cecilia Muñoz is a national leader in public policy and public interest technology. She served during the Obama administration first as Director of Intergovernmental Affairs and then as Director of the Domestic Policy Council.

Before working in government, she spent 20 years at the National Council of La Raza (now UNIDOS US), the nation's largest Hispanic policy and advocacy organization. She joined New America in 2017 as a vice president, leading local initiatives and building a team on public interest technology. Muñoz received a MacArthur Fellowship in 2000 for her work on immigration and civil rights, and is a trustee of the Kresge, MacArthur and Joyce Foundations.

She advises the Open Society and JPB Foundations, and serves on the boards of several nonprofit organizations. In 2020, she published the award-winning More Than Ready: Be Strong and Be You...and Other Lessons for Women of Color on the Rise, which shares insights from her career and the careers of other notable women of color.

TAHESHA WAY

New Jersey
Lieutenant Governor
and Secretary of State

Tahesha L. Way serves as New Jersey's 3rd Lieutenant Governor. She was appointed to the position by Governor Phil Murphy on September 8, 2023. A lifelong public servant, Lieutenant Governor Way has devoted her entire career to improving the lives of her fellow New Jerseyans. Over the past two decades, she has served at numerous levels of local and state government.

In addition to her role as Lieutenant Governor, Way also serves as New Jersey's 34th Secretary of State — a position she has held since the beginning of the Murphy Administration. As Secretary of State, Way leads one of the nation's oldest constitutional offices and directs a department with a diverse portfolio. In her capacity as New Jersey's top election official, she has overseen the state Division of Elections and its work in securing our democracy and ensuring broad, fair access to the right to vote. Lieutenant Governor Way also chaired New Jersey's Complete Count Commission, a 27-member non-partisan commission established to achieve a complete count in the 2020 US Census. In addition to the critical work protecting what Lieutenant Governor Way calls the "fraternal twins of democracy," she also oversees the state government offices supporting New Jersey's vibrant arts, culture, history, and business communities. Under her leadership, the state's tourism economy has generated record-high revenues.

Following her 2022-2023 service as the first Black person and first Secretary from New Jersey to lead the National Association of Secretaries of State (NASS) as President, Lieutenant Governor Way continues to serve on the NASS Executive Board as Immediate Past President.

KEI KAWASHIMA- GINSBERG

Newhouse Director of CIRCLE, Jonathan M.
Tisch College of Civic Life, Tufts University

Kei Kawashima-Ginsberg is the Newhouse Director of CIRCLE. She oversees CIRCLE's wide-ranging portfolio of research and impact projects with its diverse partners and for audience groups. Kawashima-Ginsberg has a background in Community Psychology and Social-Emotional Learning, which she applies to various projects at CIRCLE. Before coming to CIRCLE, she worked with young people and families at a public high school, and at an emergency room and community health center as a therapist in training. Working with people who faced numerous structural challenges made her want to work with systems that created those challenges in the first place, which attracted her to CIRCLE.

As a leading voice in the youth civic engagement field, Kawashima-Ginsberg is frequently featured in major outlets such as The New York Times, The Atlantic, National Public Radio, C-SPAN, Channel 1, and NBC. She is a recipient of the Jobs for The Future Distinguished Fellowship for Student-Centered Learning (2016-2018), and serves on the National Board of Generation Citizen, Democracy Works. Most recently, she played a major role in development of the Our Common Purpose, a commission report from the AAA&S, and the Educating for American Democracy initiative. She earned her Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Loyola University, with an emphasis on positive youth development and community psychology.
