

2023 ALL IN STUDENT VOTING HONOR ROLL

This spring the ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge is piloting an updated and expanded ALL IN Student Voting Honor Roll recognition program for college students at participating campuses.

Each campus participating in ALL IN can nominate one student to be honored. We look forward to recognizing the student voting champions helping to institutionalize nonpartisan democratic engagement and increase college student voter participation.

NOMINATION PROCESS

✓ Who to nominate

Only one student per ALL IN participating institution may be nominated. An institution may nominate any student who:

- was enrolled during the 2022-2023 academic year,
- has never before been honored by ALL IN, and who,
- supported nonpartisan voter registration, education, and turnout on campus.

✓ How to nominate

The ALL IN primary contact at the institution must complete this nomination form.

- Each institution may decide how to choose the student to nominate for the ALL IN Student Voting Honor Roll,
- Only one student per institution can be nominated,
- Please ensure the campus president or chancellor is aware of the nomination.

Information and materials that the nomination form requires, include:

- Institution's name,
- Student's name,
- Student's expected graduation year,
