Student Leaders Drive Civic Engagement on Campuses Ahead of 2026 Midterm Elections

The ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge's Student Voting Honor Roll Celebrates 168 College Students Working to Increase Nonpartisan Student Voter Turnout

Washington, DC: Today, the ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge announced its fifth annual Student Voting Honor Roll, recognizing college students across the country for their efforts to advance nonpartisan college student voter turnout efforts in their campus communities.

The Student Voting Honor Roll honorees represent 40 states and 26 community colleges, 142 four-year institutions, 34 Hispanic-Serving Institutions and six Historically Black Colleges and Universities. The full list of student honorees is available here.

“From hosting registration drives to initiating conversations with classmates in the hallway, our 2026 Student Voting Honor Roll is filled with students who exemplify what it means to be a leader in civic engagement. As college students face increasing barriers to voting while on campus, these students are making nonpartisan voter participation a lifelong habit for themselves, their peers and their campuses. We are thrilled to celebrate their accomplishments and excited to see their continued impact as we approach this year’s midterm elections,” said Jen Domagal-Goldman, Executive Director of the ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge.

The ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge works with more than 1,000 college campuses across the country — collectively enrolling more than 10 million students — to make nonpartisan civic engagement a defining feature of campus life. The members of the 2026 Student Voting Honor Roll were nominated by their campuses for their dedication and excellence in voter education, registration and turnout in 2025.
