Knight Conference Center at the Newseum
555 Pennsylvania Ave, NW
Washington, DC

WELCOME

It's hard to believe that in just over one year since launching the ALL IN Challenge, it has grown to nearly 300 campuses across the United States, representing more than 4 million students. These institutions believe, like we do, that more young people need to participate in the electoral process. They have all made a commitment to increasing student voting rates, helping students form the habits of active and informed citizenship, and making democratic participation a core value. Together, they are cultivating generations of engaged citizens who are essential to a healthy democracy.

Thank you for joining us to celebrate the achievements of the dedicated individuals and institutions across the country working tirelessly to strengthen our democracy. While we have made great strides in the last year, we know there is still more work to be done. With your continued support, and the commitment of our peers throughout higher education, we envision a day when we will all be #allin4democracy.

All the best,
Zaneeta & Cat

RECEPTION

GUEST SPEAKERS

NANCY THOMAS

Nancy Thomas directs the Institute for Democracy & Higher Education at Tufts University's Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life, conducting research and working with colleges and universities to advance student political learning and participation in democracy. Her work and scholarship center on higher education's democratic mission, campus climates for political learning and engagement, free speech and academic freedom, and deliberative democracy in the classroom, on campuses, and in communities.

ARNE DUNCAN

As managing partner at Emerson Collective, former U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan returns to Chicago on a mission to improve the lives of young adults in his hometown. Through partnerships with local business leaders, community organizers, and nonprofit groups, Duncan aims to create job and life opportunities for disconnected youth between the ages of 17 and 24. Prior to joining the Obama Administration, Duncan served as chief executive officer of Chicago Public Schools.

GUEST SPEAKERS

JOHN B. KING JR.

John B. King Jr. is the president and CEO of The Education Trust, a national nonprofit organization that seeks to identify and close opportunity and achievement gaps, from preschool through college. King served as the U.S. Secretary of Education from 2016 to 2017, and previously carried out the duties of the U.S. Deputy Secretary of Education. King joined the department following his tenure as New York State Education Commissioner. King is a former teacher and school principal.

MONICA VIDAURRI

Monica Vidaurri is a senior at George Mason University, studying astrobiology, and government and international politics. She is a former participant of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Forum & Institute's Leadership and the American Presidency program (LTAP) and has held a variety of internships and positions in the US Senate, in the non-profit sector, for the chemical lobby, and for NASA. Vidaurri is also an avid musician, and teaches high school band.
