Welcome

It's been five years since we launched the ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge and in that time we've scaled to support more than 830 colleges and universities in all 50 states plus the District of Columbia that enroll more than 9 million students.

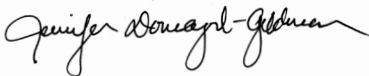

These campuses believe, like we do, that more young people need to participate in the electoral process. They have all made a commitment to increasing student voting rates, helping students form the habits of active and informed citizenship, and making participation in our democracy a core value. Together, they are cultivating generations of engaged citizens who are essential to a flourishing democracy.

The data on 2020 campus voting rates from the Institute for Democracy and Higher Education's National Study of Learning, Voting, and Engagement reveals that 66 percent of college students turned out to vote, a 14-point increase from 2016. Powerfully, external evaluation suggests that campuses fully participating in the ALL IN Challenge increase their voter turnout rates over non-participating peers by an average of 2.2 percentage points.

There's more work to be done, but today we hope you'll join us in celebrating the achievements of the dedicated individuals and institutions across the country working tirelessly to strengthen our democracy.

Thank you for joining us, thank you for your support, and thank you for being ALL IN!

All the best,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Jennifer Domagal-Goldman". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Jennifer" being more prominent and the last name "Domagal-Goldman" following in a similar style.
